Superb celebration as family, business associates brace up for Nduka Emmanuel's Milestone Birthday

By Desmond Anyanwu

Billionaire businessman and Chief Executive Officer of DE Boy Global Limited as well as CapitalCash Concept Unlimited, Nduka Emmanuel, marks milestone birthday this year in grand style with business associates, friends and families.

It was a spectacular celebration as the very popular, Nduka Emmanuel, who is fondly called, 'Capital Cash,' by his friends, colleagues and well-wishers, hosted a grand milestone birthday event that left a lasting impression on all those who attended the occasion. The birthday bash was graced by the, who-is-who in the society.

The ceremony which was the talk of the town and will make one of the major highlights of the year, took place at Omdek event Hall, Isheri, in Ejigbo local government area of Lagos State.

The economic situation didn't deter him. He gathered his people in tens of thousands to eat, drink and celebrate with him.

Speaking in an interview with our correspondent, the businessman explained that the milestone birthday is worth celebrating despite the harsh economic situation in the country.

"This is a milestone birthday, not just any how celebration, with or without money, what the Lord has done, is marvelous in our sight. Talking about the economic realities in the country, it is not my making that it happened this period.

"Friends and business associates came to celebrate with me because it takes personality to attract the kind of dignitaries that featured. I have learnt that no matter what happened in the journey of life, do not be discouraged. I have also realized that, to be a man is not a bed of roses.

"As a family man, I have learnt to discipline myself in the midst of hardship, I take reference from 1 Thessalonians 5:19. Nothing must cut my relationship with God, because all things belong to Him," he stated.

When asked about his happiest moment in life, he said, "My happiest moment was my experience when I travelled outside the shores of this country, and my saddest moment was when I lost my dad to the cold hands of death in 2006.

"I wish to be more focused on God because He is the one that gives one the power to make wealth. I need more wisdom to excel in all ramifications. However, I am very grateful to God for making this celebration a reality. I also seize this opportunity to thank each and every one of you who came to celebrate with me. It is my prayer that celebration will never seize in your lives in Jesus name...Amen!" He prayed.

Some business associates and friends of the celebrant who spoke with the magazine, said a few things of the success stories on the celebrant milestone birthday.

Mayor Chimezie from Nnewi South in Anambra State, said; "the boy is good as he is fondly called is a good man, a very generous person, easy going and that is why we are doing all what we are doing here for him today. We are trying to pay him back for what he has done for us in the past years and still doing. I wish him long life and good health with his family. That is why it is good to be good in life."

Jude Beleonwu, popularly known as Oni of Isolo said, "People love the man so much because he has helped lot of people, who are in need or trouble. Anytime he heard a friend or relation have problem, he will be the first person to come out to suggest how to help the person. That is why people love him so much. Today you can see people that are celebrating with him because of the love they have for him. I come to know him when he joined us in the tyre business. He has traveled all over the world for business purpose. He is doing well. I wish him many more year, I wish him more success in all he does, both in business and life."

Comrade Jude Eberechukwu, who represented, Ugo lyke-Ugochukwu Christian Ikechukwu- Ugo lyke Global Limited, said that Capital Cash is a humble young man. "He is an assiduous person, a smart worker. My advice to him is that he should keep to his goodwill, he should keep having a relationship with people. You never can tell who will help you", he stressed.

The milestone celebration was not just a birthday party it was an event that brought together friends, families, entrepreneurs, business associates and fans in a festive and joyous atmosphere.

Capital Cash's milestone birthday bash was described as unforgettable occasion, blending music, fashion, and top-tier entertainment.
